

Grammar teaching sheet: comparatives

• ≠ ●
old	young
fat	thin
long	short
big	small / little

To say how two things are different we use +er than

old  older

A

long

longer

B

shorter  ← short

tall → taller

C

old → older than long → longer than short → shorter than tall → taller than

Which picture do these sentences go with?

Dad is old, but Grandad is older than Dad.

I am taller than my little brother, but I am shorter than my big sister.

My arm is long but your arm is longer than my arm.